The Office of Prevention and Wellness is offering a Grant Writing Training

January 22-23, 2015 from 9:00 a.m.-3:30 p.m.
State Fire Academy, 8895 E Main St, Reynoldsburg, OH 43068

As a result of this NO COST training staff participants will be able to:

- identify various resources to access grant funding
- identify key elements that are a part of most every grant application
- demonstrate the ability to develop clear logic models for goals and objectives
- articulate what should and should not be in most grant proposals and budgets

The training will be interactive with the opportunity for guided practice. Participants are encouraged to bring a laptop for session activities and are welcome to bring any proposal currently in process for assistance and or feedback (As long as it is not related to OhioMHAS).

There will be a minimum of 15 and a maximum of 50 participant slots for this free training.

If you would like to register for this Grant Writing Training, please email Philip Atkins at: philip.atkins@mha.ohio.gov to reserve your spot. Your email will serve as your registration form.

Each person must register individually we will not take multiple registrations on one e-mail.

Please include the following information for your registration:

- Name
- Agency Name and Address
- Email
- Phone number

No food or beverages will be provided, but feel free to bring your own. There will be a break for lunch which is on your own and we will be able to provide you with suggestions for places nearby. There is also a great cafeteria at the Fire Academy.

If you have any questions, please contact Philip Atkins, philip.atkins@mha.ohio.gov.
