

The United States Department of Veteran Affairs: Readjustment Counseling Service Benefit Vet Center benefits and eligibility

Presented by: Timothy A. Oldani

DATE: June 9, 2014
TIME: 10:30 AM – 12 PM
PLACE: Twin Valley
North Conference Room,
Columbus, Ohio

Tim Oldani is the Ohio Outreach Coordinator for the Dept. of Veterans Affairs, Readjustment Counseling Service; more widely known as the Vet Center. Mr. Oldani developed and initiated the outreach services for the Vet Centers in Northeast Ohio, and currently services all of Ohio. Through intensive community involvement, expansive networking and focused coordination, he has increased awareness of the Vet Center's mission and function in the surrounding communities and state of Ohio.

Mr. Oldani is a Combat Veteran of the United States Marine Corps. He has two deployments overseas, one of which was a 2005 combat deployment along-side some of the State of Ohio's own Veterans from 3rd Battalion 25th Marines in historical operations such as Operation Matador, Operation Spear, and Operation Iron Curtain. As a Veteran himself, he aims to serve our Nation's Veterans, with professional care and commitment, through his position with the Vet Center Readjustment Counseling Service.
