

Grants Funding Management System Production Release

This communication is intended to notify users of the Grants Funding Management System (GFMS) application that had a production release occurred on November 29, 2016.

External Users Functionality that was released

- Allocation Documentation:
  - Users are now able to upload title XX and other documentation to their allocations.
- Revised Line item budget:
  - Users were trying update their revised grant application by adding items to their line item budget, but the system was not saving line items that were not in their original grant application line item budget. They can now add additional line items to a revised grant line item budget.
