FAQ

Q: Is client rights and grievance procedure covered under deemed status?

A: Yes. MHAS will continue to follow up on complaints alleging a violation of rights.
Three Sets of Rights

1. Forensic
2. Driver Intervention Program
3. All other MH and AoD

5122-26-18 (A)

(A) The purpose of this rule is to state the minimum client rights and grievances requirements for a provider certified pursuant to Chapter 5122-25 of the Administrative Code.
(B) The following definitions are in addition to or supersede the definitions in rule 5122-24-01 of the Administrative Code:

(1) "Client advocate" means the individual designated by a provider with responsibility for assuring compliance with the client rights and grievance procedure rule as implemented within each provider or board, and shall have the same meaning as client rights officer or client rights specialist.

(2) "Grievance" means a written complaint initiated either verbally or in writing by a client or by any other person or provider on behalf of a client regarding denial or abuse of any client's rights.

(3) "Reasonable" means a standard for what is fair and appropriate under usual and ordinary circumstances.
(C) Each provider shall have the following:
(1) Written client rights policy that lists all of the client rights identified in this rule;
(2) Written client grievance procedure;

(3) Policy for maintaining for at least two years from resolution, records of client grievances that include, at a minimum, the following:
(a) Copy of the grievance;
(b) Documentation reflecting process used and resolution/remedy of the grievance; and,
(c) Documentation, if applicable, of extenuating circumstances for extending the time period for resolving the grievance beyond twenty-one calendar days.
5122-26-18 (D)

(D) Posting of client rights
(1) The client rights policy and grievance procedure shall be posted in each location in which services are provided, unless the certified agency location is not under the control of the provider, i.e. a shared location such as a school, jail, etc. and it is not feasible for the provider to do so.
(2) The client rights policy and grievance procedure shall be posted in a conspicuous location that is accessible to persons served, their family or significant others and the public.

(D) Posting of client rights
(3) When a location is not under the control of the provider and it is not feasible for the provider to post the client rights policy and grievance procedure, the provider shall assure that copies are available at the location for each person that may request a written copy.
5122-26-18 (E)

(E) Except for clients receiving forensic evaluation service as defined in rule 5122-29-07 of the Administrative Code from a certified forensic center, or attending a driver intervention program as defined in rule 5122-29-12 of the Administrative Code, each client has all of the following rights:
(1) The right to be treated with consideration and respect for personal dignity, autonomy and privacy;
(2) The right to reasonable protection from physical, sexual or emotional abuse and inhumane treatment;
(3) The right to receive services in the least restrictive, feasible environment;

(E) Except for clients receiving forensic evaluation service as defined in rule 5122-29-07 of the Administrative Code from a certified forensic center, or attending a driver intervention program as defined in rule 5122-29-12 of the Administrative Code, each client has all of the following rights:
(4) The right to participate in any appropriate and available service that is consistent with an individual service plan (ISP), regardless of the refusal of any other service, unless that service is a necessity for clear treatment reasons and requires the person's participation;
(5) The right to give informed consent to or to refuse any service, treatment or therapy, including medication absent an emergency;
(E) Except for clients receiving forensic evaluation service as defined in rule 5122-29-07 of the Administrative Code from a certified forensic center, or attending a driver intervention program as defined in rule 5122-29-12 of the Administrative Code, each client has all of the following rights:

(6) The right to participate in the development, review and revision of one's own individualized treatment plan and receive a copy of it;
(7) The right to freedom from unnecessary or excessive medication, and to be free from restraint or seclusion unless there is immediate risk of physical harm to self or others;
(8) The right to be informed and the right to refuse any unusual or hazardous treatment procedures;

(9) The right to be advised and the right to refuse observation by others and by techniques such as one-way vision mirrors, tape recorders, video recorders, television, movies, photographs or other audio and visual technology. This right does not prohibit an agency from using closed-circuit monitoring to observe seclusion rooms or common areas, which does not include bathrooms or sleeping areas;
(E) Except for clients receiving forensic evaluation service as defined in rule 5122-29-07 of the Administrative Code from a certified forensic center, or attending a driver intervention program as defined in rule 5122-29-12 of the Administrative Code, each client has all of the following rights:

(10) The right to confidentiality of communications and personal identifying information within the limitations and requirements for disclosure of client information under state and federal laws and regulations;

(11) The right to have access to one's own client record unless access to certain information is restricted for clear treatment reasons. If access is restricted, the treatment plan shall include the reason for the restriction, a goal to remove the restriction, and the treatment being offered to remove the restriction;

(12) The right to be informed a reasonable amount of time in advance of the reason for terminating participation in a service, and to be provided a referral, unless the service is unavailable or not necessary;

(13) The right to be informed of the reason for denial of a service;
(E) Except for clients receiving forensic evaluation service as defined in rule 5122-29-07 of the Administrative Code from a certified forensic center, or attending a driver intervention program as defined in rule 5122-29-12 of the Administrative Code, each client has all of the following rights:

(14) The right not to be discriminated against for receiving services on the basis of race, ethnicity, age, color, religion, gender, national origin, sexual orientation, physical or mental handicap, developmental disability, genetic information, human immunodeficiency virus status, or in any manner prohibited by local, state or federal laws;

(15) The right to know the cost of services;

(16) The right to be verbally informed of all client rights, and to receive a written copy upon request;

(17) The right to exercise one's own rights without reprisal, except that no right extends so far as to supersede health and safety considerations;

(18) The right to file a grievance;

(19) The right to have oral and written instructions concerning the procedure for filing a grievance, and to assistance in filing a grievance if requested;

(20) The right to be informed of one's own condition; and,

(21) The right to consult with an independent treatment specialist or legal counsel at one's own expense.
