PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services is pleased to sponsor the 2016 Annual Forensic Conference: Meeting Current Ethical, Clinical, and Public-Policy Challenges. This one-day conference is designed for a broad range of professionals who work with people who have mental illness and are involved in the justice system.

This year's conference will feature Kirk Heilbrun, Ph.D., ABPP who will deliver the Keynote Address titled "Violence Risk for Individuals with Mental Illness: Appraisal and Treatment." Dr. Heilbrun is a national expert on the topic of violence risk assessment and a Diplomate in Forensic Psychology. He will also lead an interactive workshop on violence risk management planning for people being discharged from hospitals to the community. More information about Dr. Heilbrun is available on the Drexel University website.

The conference will offer the popular Legal Update plenary session, as well as a number of workshops. These will include a Consumer Panel, Ethics for Forensic Clinicians, Malingering in Forensic Evaluations, an Introduction to Ohio's Forensic System, Innovative Treatment for Forensic Patients, Details of Forensic Monitoring and a successful Forensic Housing program. There will also be workshops that feature judges, attorneys and mental health experts who will discuss various aspects of challenging forensic case scenarios.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

Application for all relevant continuing education credits will be made, and will include application for ethics credits for those workshops that cover ethics-related topics. More information regarding continuing education will be posted when available.

REGISTRATION

The fee for the conference is $135. A student rate of $50 is available for post-doctoral psychology or psychiatric residents and graduate students in psychology, law, social work, counseling and nursing.
