PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services is pleased to sponsor the 2018 Annual Forensic Conference: Assessment and Treatment of People with Intellectual Disabilities in the Forensic System. This conference is designed for professionals who work with people who have a mental illness and/or an intellectual disability and are involved in the justice system. The conference will feature keynote speaker Marc Tassé, Ph.D., who will talk about assessment and diagnostic issues with people who have an intellectual disability. Dr. Tassé is a licensed psychologist, a professor in the Departments of Psychology and Psychiatry, and is also the Director of Nisonger Center, a University Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities, at The Ohio State University. He has more than 30 years of experience in conducting research and providing clinical services in the field of intellectual disability (ID), autism spectrum disorder (ASD), and other related developmental disabilities (DD). He has been a Principal Investigator (PI)/co-PI on more than a dozen grant-funded projects. His publications include more than 130 articles in peer-reviewed journals, book chapters and books in the area of intellectual and developmental disabilities. He has given more than 250 scientific and professional presentations related to ID, ASD and related neurodevelopmental disorders. He is a past president of the American Association on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (2012-2013).

The conference will also feature the annual legal update and workshops on the forensic evaluation process of people with intellectual disability (ID), community treatment options for forensic patients with ID and a judge and attorney panel. Registration and badge pick-up will begin at 8 a.m. on Oct. 25.
